Preface

- 90% of parenting is just thinking when can you sit and rest. LOL. 😂
- Parenting is a never-ending job... even if your children are grandparents now!
- The best way to get your child's attention is to sit down and relax.

Did you EVER have these thoughts as your children grew up? I bet you had! Did you ever feel you wish you had SUPER POWERS to make things happen instead of repeating the same thing over and over and not getting anywhere? I bet you did.

Preface

Well, we asked parents, if you had the option of 'choosing' a superpower, what would you choose. We got answers from wise to otherwise, from hilarious to i-give-up.

Here is a selection from the best responses we got.

Whenever you feel bogged down in parenting, open this book, read a page and smile in the knowledge, other parents are going through 'much worse' scenarios.

On a naughty note, may you have the superpowers that other parents are craving for. Happy parenting.

1

I would do ANYthing for the power to make my kids do what I ask the first time.

— Narendra Goidani

2 The super power I would love to have is to be a sibling fight diffuser. This quality will help me replace arguments, fights, screams and accusations with laughter, jokes, games and high fives.

— Ilyas Ahmed, Architect

3

The flute of Pied Piper / with the power to persuade my 2 year old who otherwise rants and rolls in the middle of the shopping mall.

— Arti I Chabbria

4

I wish I had lie detection super powers to know exactly when to back my kids up and when to straighten them up.

— Poonam I Dange

The superpower of Duracell / -
The ability to run on full energy constantly. Uggh... my kids exhaust me.

— Ishwar M Singh

6

Power of Hypnosis /- The God of sleep.
I would definitely love to have the ability to get a child to sleep in under 5 minutes."

— Ishan J Jaan

7

Superpower to ignore the mess / made by my children and keep on repeating to myself - It's ok. It's ok... with a smile.

— CA. Gyan Raj

8

Taste Maker : The ability to make fruits and vegetables as desirable as pasta and pizza.

— Gyanchand Mehta MBA,
Director Finance of an MNC

9

I want a super power to always /feel good about myself/as a mom.

— Anu Sathaye

10

The power to make my children take bath on time.

1

I would like to delete moments from past where I had lost patience and reacted hastily... (or may be hostile)

— Archana Gopal Zhaver

12

Telepathy! It will reduce all communication gaps!

13

If I could have a super power, I would want the power of a mess cleaner!

— Mansi Parchand

14

Amrutanjan pain balm / -

Every time my girls are in pain, I wish I could relieve it with a gentle touch.

— Narendra Goidani

15

"Hypnosis" —

...and make them do whatever I want! No arguments at all!

16

Patience.

This is what at times we lack.
Love and care is always there.

— Ritesh Shinde

17

I would wish for extra patience, / which I think will solve maximum problems.
And if I could really get super power.

— Archana Gopal Zhaver

18

Remaining joyful. No matter how the situation is; so that it rubs off on the child too, and immense amount of patience.

— Meenakshi Bhandari

19

I would replace arguing and tension with laughter and hugs.

— Piyush Bafna

A photograph of two men standing on a green lawn. The man on the left is older, with grey hair, wearing sunglasses and a white polo shirt. The man on the right is younger, with dark hair and a beard, wearing sunglasses and a white polo shirt. They are both smiling. In the background, there is a large, modern building with many windows. The entire image has a green overlay.

20

Mainly the super power of not reacting to situations but actually working on things to make it simply efficient and worthy.

— Raji Guruprasad Makam

21

Parenting Super Power
I wish I had all the time - Knowing what is going on in my child's mind .

— Meena Mundada
CEO, Freedom Park School

22

Parenting super power I wish I have every day - more and more patience to listen to my child.
Listening more from them resolves all hassles.

— Manali Joshi

23

Parenting super power I wish I had that power that /kid's listen/ to whatever I say.

— Arti Bothra

24

I wish I could bless them with the power to be happy, resilient and being connected to inner self/all the time.

— Vikas Bhandari

I need more patience, patience and patience...
Power to /let go and control / over my reactions.

— Preeti Jain

26

Always respond positively to your child even when you have to say no.

— Tasnim Chunawala

I would like the super power to give them more time and attention than what I give them now.

— Shradha Kharnavat

28

I wish I had the power to make my child know how to have the right balance in every situation and also know /the joy of giving./ He should have both these qualities.

— Dimple Tanna

29

I would like the children of today to be less aggressive and show more patience. Be more peaceful and positive.

— Renuka Datta
Principal, Dnyanganga High School

30

I wish I could bless them with to be happy and for myself to be able to have more patience / before I react to situations.

— Ritu Goel

31

My children give me my power. So, the more happy they are the more powerful I become. The more they laugh the more power I get. Like in Spiderman, with great power comes great responsibility. So, with this increasing power I should be able to resolve issues responsibly.

— Neha Kanpile

32

To be able to put a SMILE on the face of Atharva, my child, when he does not do well as he wants to in an activity.

Basically I would like to teach him to accept a setback with a smile and move on with josh.

— Amit Varde

A real difficult preposition.
But if I got a wish as a super mom, I would ask for my children to be ferociously independent.

— Sharmila Basu
Educator

34

My Super Power would be “A magical switch” in my brain which I could just switch on whenever required.

— Iris Babu

35

Parenting super power I really wish is that every time I bless them with positive energy and love.

when they need us.

— VJ Rao

51

When her eyes are filled
With tears,
When I see some inside
Fears,
I wish the superpower to Make her understand this is Life and these experiences Will help you to face the Challenges small and big Coming on this beautiful Journey of life.

There are some areas which she hates,
There are some times when she hesitates,
There I need the super power to fill the intense love
In her, help her come out of hesitations and spread
Her colors in the world.

The jazzy world becomes her attractions,
This slowly turns into her distractions,
Here I need the superpower to make her understand
You need to wait for the right time dear.

When I see the smile on her lips and dreams in her Eyes,
The moment in which she feels very nice,
I wish the superpower to keep this spark alive in her
Till the time she achieves her goal.

When I get that lovely hug and tender kiss I feel this Is how actually my Semal is,

Here I wish the superpower again and again to keep It, preserve it and grow more this instinct of love in Her to spread it in world through her, by her.

Sometimes she fails and finds it difficult to Move on,
She tends to forget the stories that I said,
Then I wish to become an angel, and spark the Magic of inspirations and make her stride towards Her success and dreams.
